

IRISH MUSEUMS ASSOCIATION - EVENTS AND ADMISSION POLICY

The Irish Museums Association aims to foster a welcoming, professional and productive environment at all events held by the Irish Museums Association, including those organised in collaboration with partners and held in locations not managed by the Irish Museums Association.

To assist us in achieving this, please note the following:

- For all our free events we build in a percentage of no-shows, therefore a ticket is not a guarantee of entry. Please arrive on time to optimise your chance of a seat
- Late arrivals may not be admitted
- Attendees are asked to act in accordance with instructions of the Chair, at all times, to ensure a participative and constructive meeting and a diversity of contributions from the floor
- Anyone asked to stop engaging in unacceptable behaviour must comply immediately.
- Failure to comply may result in request to leave the premises
- Admission fees will not be refunded.
- The Irish Museums Association reserves the right to refuse attendance at future Irish Museums Association events
- Inappropriate behaviour, direct or indirect, whether verbal, physical or otherwise, is unacceptable. For example, unwelcome and unsolicited comments, disruptive, or hostile behaviour, including speech that intimidates, creates discomfort, or interferes with a person's participation in an Irish Museums Association's associated event; inappropriate physical contact; unwelcome sexual attention; deliberate intimidation or stalking
- Disruptive behaviour, offensive comments, or harassment based on gender, civil status, family status, age, race or ethnicity, religion, disability, or sexual orientation will not be tolerated
- Mobile phones must be set to silent and the use of recording equipment is not permitted without prior permission being granted, in writing
- Children must be accompanied by an adult
- The Irish Museums Association reserves the right to refuse admission to Irish Museums Association events

We welcome feedback. If you are subjected to unacceptable behaviour, notice that someone else is being subjected to unacceptable behaviour, or have any other concerns, please notify a member of staff immediately.
